

PRESENTER PROFILE

Murray Procter
Partner
DLA Piper

Murray is a partner in DLA Piper's employment practice, and is based in Brisbane.

He has over 17 years multi-industry experience providing industrial relations, employment, safety and discrimination advice, and acting in disputes in courts and tribunals.

Having held previous roles with peak industry bodies - together with well-developed technical skills - Murray brings trusted guidance to his clients' industrial relations, employment and safety decision making.

He is also an advisor to the Queensland Government as a board member of Work Health and Safety Queensland.

